Dear Sirs:

I have 23 Canadian, 26 German, 17 U.S., 4 Chinese, 13 unknown, and one each of Hindi, Danish, Italian, Ceylon, Russian, Tunis, and 4 Spanish coins which I would like to dispose of. I saw your advertisement in the Numismatist and thought that by writing you, I might get an idea of how to proceed. What do you charge for sales made by you? I feel sure that among my "unknown" coins I have two or three ancient Greek or Roman coins - I label them unknown because I am not familiar enough with coins to classify them.

If you care for it, I will make a descriptive and as complete a list of them as I can. Some half a dozen or more of them are over a hundred years old. Perhaps you can send me some information as to their value; will be glad to hear from you regarding the coins.

Very Respectfully
